Christian Aid's work in Zimbabwe

Current challenges:

- Climate change affected weather patterns
- Effects of Covid-19
- Weak economy
- All of which leads to food insecurity

Project BRACT

Building Resilience through improving the Absorptive and Adaptive Capacity for Transformation of at-risk communities
(BRACT)

Key work of the BRACT project is building resilience among farmers who struggle with poor yields for their crops.

Working in the Mutoko and Mudzi Districts
— where drought is a common problem.

The following reels highlight how the project has helped three people and their families...
